

Foundry— A Platform to Elevate Your Work

In order to be effective, courseware must reach its audience. EVERFI's Foundry platform enables program owners to easily identify and administer, track completion and dig into the data for courses and trainings. It streamlines your administrative processes so that you can spend less time in the weeds and more time acting on data insights.

FLEXIBLE USER MANAGEMENT

Create lists of learners and organize them by role, location, start date, or custom groups. Identify the individuals and groups of individuals to send training requests to.

PROGRESS AND COMPLETION TRACKING

Know at a glance how many learners have completed a training and identify and reach out to those who have not. Our dashboards make it easy to track progress including completion and other progress information.

COURSE ASSIGNMENTS

Set it and forget it. Create learner profiles to determine who should receive training and use one of three assignment options to generate training requests:

- Quick Assignments: Assign learners from a list and map them to an assignment schedule.
- Automatic Assignments: Define your learner profile and our system will search nightly to identify and notify new individuals that meet that assignment criteria.
- Localized Assignments: System will automatically identify which compliance course version needs to be assigned to learners based on the profile that the administrator has uploaded.

SELF-SERVICE CUSTOMIZATIONS

Make the learner experience your company's own with custom pages, welcome letters, videos, and custom content including internal and local resources. Foundry enables program owners to quickly update and change these customizations at any moment.

DATA INSIGHTS

Administrator level users are able to visualize information about the strengths of their organization and the perception, behaviors, and experiences of their learners.
